BULLETIN 91-9

Issued this 26th day of December, 1991

TO: ALL COMPANIES WRITING PROPERTY/CASUALTY INSURANCE IN MINNESOTA.

SUBJECT: (a) RATE; CONSENT TO RATE; SINGLE CASE RATE; REPEAL OF
BULLETIN 89-1, DATED 2-20-89

Bulletin 89-1 instructed insurers to file all forms, rules and rates applicable to policies written on an (a) Rate, Consent to Rate or Single Case Rate basis. This resulted in a significant increase in the volume of filings submitted to this office for review. Based upon further study and evaluation it is our conclusion that the purposes of Insurance Rate Regulation statute 70A can be achieved, while at the same time reducing the number of required filings. Bulletin 89-1 is hereby repealed and superseded by the provisions of this bulletin. Effective January 1, 1992, the following procedures will apply:

DO FILE

1. Policy forms intended for use by more than one insured.
2. Rates and Rules which apply to more than one insured.

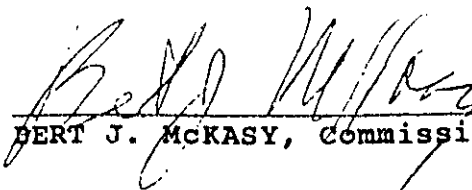

DO NOT FILE

1. Policy forms tailored for an individual insured.
2. (a) rates, consent to rate and single case rates developed for an individual insured.

DO MAINTAIN

1. For each insured under "Do Not File", a file including forms, rates and supporting rate information, for a period of not less than three years after the policy has terminated.
2. Provide the Commissioner of Commerce with a file within 30 days of such request.

Questions regarding this bulletin should be directed to Mr. William Kyle, Commerce Analysis Supervisor, at 612-296-2656.
